Statement regarding Conflict Minerals

Dear Customer,

The Dodd-Frank Act does not affect our fluoroplastic products. Fluoroplastic is the generic name for PTFE, FEP and PFA, we only use virgin polymer to make our tubing, sleeving and heat shrink products.

I can confirm that the fluoroplastic products that Adtech regularly supply do not contain tantalum, tin, tungsten or gold.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you require additional information.

Yours sincerely,

Samantha Deverell
Managing Director
Adtech Polymer Engineering Ltd
